

MUĞLA SITKI KOÇMAN UNIVERSITY FACULTY OF MEDICINE INSTITUTIONAL AIM(S) AND OBJECTIVE(S)
1	Educational Aim(s) and Objective(s)
2	Research Aim(s) and Objective(s)
3	Service-Related Aim(s) and Objective(s)

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES OF MSKU FACULTY OF MEDICINE EDUCATION
	MAIN AIM(S):
1	To provide medical education at international standards
2	To train good physicians who take care of public health at the highest level
	EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVE(S)
1	To keep the alumni-faculty bond warm and to maintain their training programs that includes updates
2	To ensure the bond of all students, research assistants and lecturers in the faculty and to maintain this for life,
3	To keep the academic information of all health stakeholders working in the region up-to-date and to share academic information
4	To follow-up of graduates' post-graduation activities closely,
5	To make academic and social events that will bring together healthcare professionals working in the region,
6	To keep the educational qualifications of the faculty teaching staff at the highest level,
7	To ensure cooperation between other healthcare professionals, students, research assistants and lecturers,
8	To be a pioneer in the field of travel health,
9	To contribute to the development of the health literacy of the society,
10	To provide evidence-based data to health managers of the country and region.

RESEARCH AIM(S) AND OBJECTIVE(S)
1	To offer groundbreaking solutions for the solution of current and important health problems by using science and technology effectively,
2	To provide a healthy and effective research environment,
3	To establish clear guidelines and procedures to support researchers.
4	To provide appropriate learning, work and guidance opportunities,
5	To increase the awareness of researchers about standards,
6	To train and guide researchers,
7	To supervise and support of research throughout the process (regulations, guidelines),
8	To ensure the use of efficiency of research resources with the availability and fair distribution of resources.
9	To equip research laboratories and to provide a research environment by taking the initiative of the faculty in specialized subjects,
10	To encourage clinical and field research,
11	To create a reward mechanism in research with high scientific value,
12	To ensure that research results are discussed with stakeholders in order to adapt and improve them to public health,
13	To create environments where research ideas can be discussed or produced interdisciplinary,
14	To start researcher education before graduation,
15	To encourage internal cooperation and competition with different institutions in the field of research,
16	To provide an environment for researchers at all levels to communicate with each other and to encourage communication (research assistant-faculty member-student),
17	To coordinate with central research laboratories and basic sciences,
18	To encourage qualified scientific studies.

SERVICE-RELATED AIM(S) AND OBJECTIVE(S)
1	To train practitioners,
2	To train specialist and sub-specialist physicians, to give graduate degrees,
3	To offer new information and experimental options through scientific research,
4	To provide health services,
5	To perform preventive medicine,
6	To work to provide quality service,
7	To have a staff of trained faculty members with the technical capacity to serve the region's population and millions of domestic and foreign tourists coming every year,
8	To have a faculty member who can provide the highest level of health service in every field of medicine,
9	To cooperate with all the stakeholders of the region in the provision of health services.

