

MEDICAL LEGISLATION (PHASE 4)

LEARNING AIM(S)

1	In this course, it is aimed that the students examine the concepts and rules of medical law and produce solutions to the basic legal problems specific to this field.
---	---

LEARNING OBJECTIVE(S)

1	To be able to explain the basic concepts and institutions of medical legislation.
2	To be able to explain the ways of legal protection by listing the rights of patients and physicians.
3	To be able to list the conditions of legality of medical intervention.
4	To be able to evaluate the legal responsibility arising from medical interventions.
5	To be able to explain the criminal responsibility of physicians.
6	To be able to determine the responsibility of the administration in health services.
7	To be able to explain the disciplinary investigation about civil servants.

INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOME(S)

1	Can explain the basic concepts and institutions of medical legislation.
2	Can explain the ways of legal protection by listing the rights of patients and physicians.
3	Can list the conditions of legality of medical intervention.
4	Can evaluate the legal responsibility arising from medical interventions.
5	Can explain the criminal responsibility of physicians.
6	Can determine the responsibility of the administration in health services.
7	Can explain the disciplinary investigation about civil servants.