

HEALTHCARE MANAGEMENT (PHASE 5)

AIM(S)

1	In this course, it is aimed that the students learn the importance, necessity and roles of professional healthcare management.
----------	--

LEARNING OBJECTIVE(S)

1	To be able to explain healthcare management, management concept, management process, managerial roles, managerial levels and skills and basic concepts related to healthcare management.
2	To be able to explain the unique features of Health Institutions and the difference of their management from other institutions.
3	To be able to explain the competencies that health managers should have.
4	To be able to explain the management and organizational structures of hospitals according to their ownership structures.
5	To be able to explain human resource management in health institutions.

INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOME(S)

1	Can explain healthcare management, management concept, management process, managerial roles, managerial levels and skills and basic concepts related to healthcare management.
2	Can explain the unique features of Health Institutions and the difference of their management from other institutions.
3	Can explain the competencies that health managers should have.
4	Can explain the management and organizational structures of hospitals according to their ownership structures.
5	Can explain human resource management in health institutions.