

Muğla Sıtkı Koçman University Faculty of Medicine Vision

In order to respond to the health needs of the society in every way, Muğla Sıtkı Koçman University Faculty of Medicine will be an institution.

- Educating physicians who have kept up with the development of medicine, who have mastered modern medical practices, who have grasped scientific techniques, and who can provide health care at the best level,
- Having a talented and well-equipped academic staff who is open to different people and ideas, observing ethical principles and values at the highest level, free-thinking,
- Which has become a center of attraction in the academic field,
- Where ground-breaking scientific studies that produce added value with industrial and technological cooperation are implemented,
- Offering all the opportunities that medicine has reached to the service of both local and global society in the best way,