

MEDICAL PATHOLOGY (PHASE 5)

AIM(S)

1	In this course, it is aimed that students learn the working conditions and procedures of the medical pathology laboratory.
---	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

LEARNING OBJECTIVE(S)

1	To be able to explain the working conditions of the Medical Pathology laboratory
2	To be able to explain the job descriptions of Medical Pathologists and what types of samples are examined.
3	To be able to explain the main parameters that should be included in Medical Pathology reports through examples.
4	To be able to explain the rules of macroscopic organ examination and dissection.
5	To be able to explain tissue tracking and staining procedures.

INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOME(S)

1	Can explain the working conditions of the Medical Pathology laboratory
2	Can explain the job descriptions of Medical Pathologists and what types of samples are examined.
3	Can explain the main parameters that should be included in Medical Pathology reports through examples.
4	Can explain the rules of macroscopic organ examination and dissection.
5	Can explain tissue tracking and staining procedures.