

MEDICAL SOCIOLOGY (PHASE 5)

AIM(S)
1	In this course, it is aimed that students comprehend the definition of sociology, its relationship with other sciences and its subject, examine the theories of sociology and the thoughts of important scientists in sociology, and examine the concepts of society, social structure, culture, group, individual, status and prestige.
2	In this course, it is aimed to enable students to comprehend the basic concepts of health sociology and the historical development of health sociology in the world and in Turkey.
3	In this course, it is aimed that students understand the history of health, perception of health and the historicity of medical knowledge.
4	In this course, it is aimed that the students comprehend the basic approaches in the sociology of health and the social foundations of disease and health.
5	In this course, it is aimed that students learn the theories of sociology of health and the social determinants of health.
6	In this course, it is aimed that students learn health policies, the relationship between health, body, and sociology of food, and have information about communication in health.

LEARNING OBJECTIVE(S)
1	To be able to explain the concepts, subject, theories, and individual-society relationship of sociology.
2	To be able to explain the basic concepts and development of Health Sociology.
3	To be able to deal with concepts such as health and disease from a sociological perspective.
4	To be able to explain the theories and social determinants of health.

5	To be able to explain the areas close to the sociology of health and have awareness about communication in health.
---	--

INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOME(S)
1	Can explain the concepts, subject, theories, and individual-society relationship of sociology.
2	Can explain the basic concepts and development of Health Sociology.
3	Can deal with concepts such as health and disease from a sociological perspective.
4	Can explain the theories and social determinants of health.
5	Can explain the areas close to the sociology of health and have awareness about communication in health.