

PSYCHIATRY

(PHASE 6)

LEARNING AIM(S)

1	In this course, it is aimed that the students have sufficient knowledge about the diagnosis and treatment of basic psychiatric diseases.
---	--

LEARNING OBJECTIVE(S)

1	To be able to explain mental illnesses, drug treatments, side effects of treatments in primary health care institutions.
2	To be able to provide mental health services in primary health care institutions.
3	To be able to recognize the early signs of deterioration in mental states and to be able to understand the importance of treatment.
4	To be able to recognize the physical, cognitive, behavioral, and emotional symptoms that show that the control of the emotional reactions of the person is impaired.
5	To be able to provide training on stress management in primary health care institutions and their relatives.
6	To be able to choose the patients to be referred by understanding the relationship and harmony between primary, secondary, and tertiary mental health services.
7	To be able to explain the physiological and psychological effects of addictive substances (alcohol, substance, etc.).
8	To be able to gain the ability to recognize, manage and treat the psychiatric emergency patient.
9	To be able to explain the active ingredients and prospectus information of drugs used in psychiatric treatment.

INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOME(S)

1	Can explain mental illnesses, drug treatments, side effects of treatments in primary health care institutions.
2	Can provide mental health services in primary health care institutions.
3	Can recognize the early signs of deterioration in mental states and can understand the importance of treatment.

4	Can recognize the physical, cognitive, behavioral, and emotional symptoms that show that the control of the emotional reactions of the person is impaired.
5	Can provide training on stress management in primary health care institutions and their relatives.
6	Can choose the patients to be referred by understanding the relationship and harmony between primary, secondary, and tertiary mental health services.
7	Can explain the physiological and psychological effects of addictive substances (alcohol, substance, etc.).
8	Can gain the ability to recognize, manage and treat the psychiatric emergency patient.
9	Can explain the active ingredients and prospectus information of drugs used in psychiatric treatment.